LIVER COMPLAINT

Among civilised mankind there is no complaint so prevalent as the above, late medical statistics showing that fully one-half of nearly all the communities are to a greater or less degree afflicted with it. Under these circumstances, it is highly important that the wonderful curative powers of in Liver Complaint, should be made to the public. They are in this disease, as nearly as can be said of any medical preparation,

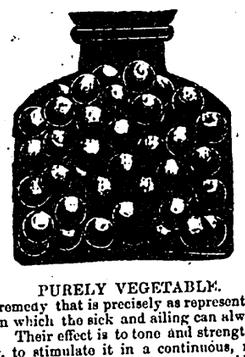
A PERFECT SPECIFIC!



PURELY VEGETABLE.

A remedy that is precisely as represented, and one on which the sick and ailing can always depend. Their effect is to tone and strengthen the Liver, to stimulate it in a continuous, natural, and healthy action; to prevent torpidity, to keep the bile from coagulating or becaming thick and sticky, which is always the condition in certain stages of Liver Complaint, being the preliminary to the formation of gall-stones—and the most excruciating pain in their passage through the duct into the bowels.

BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS.

Do not depend upon any mineral or dangerous substance for their acting upon the liver, They are purely vegetable, and entail no evil consequences upon the patient; they do not dry up the natural humidity of the bowels, thereby causing a continual necessity for further purgation, and the ultimate weakening of the entire excretory organs.

PODOPHYLLIN AND LEPTANDRIN.

The active principles of Bristol's Pills are acknowledged by all enlightened physicians to be the surest and safest remedy for every form of hepatic or biliary derangement. No other Pill, of which we have any knowledge, contain these invaluable resinoids. Prepared in our own laboratory, under our personal supervision, they insure the unvarying uniformity of operation for which Bristol's Pills have become so justly celebrated. But the powerful anti-bilious properties of these Pills are not their only virtue, they are besides a splendid tonic, a thorough yet safe cathartic, a sure cure for indigestion and dyspepsia; safe for the weakest, yet strong enough for the most robust. In short, they are an unfailing

SOURCE OF GOOD HEALTH.

To those who use them, without any of the griping, ripening, or weakening effects produced by the operation of other Pill.

In every case where there is reason to suspect that the blood is impure, or that there is any taint of Scrofula in the system, BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA should be used in conjunction with the Pills, the two medicines being prepared to act in harmony and when used together they ensure a speedy and complete recovery.

For Sale at all the principal Drug Stores.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN CURE

THE ORIGINAL CHLORODYNE.

This Preparation, manufactured by the original inventor, being perfectly mixable with water, may be easily distinguished from all other imitations.

IN DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA.

Its use is attended with the most striking results. On a recent occasion eminent London Physicians and Surgeons made affidavits to the fact that they had extensively prescribed FREEMAN'S CHLORODYNE, had used it in private practice, had used it in comparison with Chlorodyne of other makers, had carefully noted the effects of each, and preferred FREEMAN'S as being the most certain and reliable preparation, stating in particular that they had not fou d it to produce headache.

Earl Russell communicated to the Royal College of Physicians and to Mr. Freeman, that in Manilla the only remedy of any use in

CHOLERA;

Was Chlorodyne.—"Lancet," Dec. 31, 1864; "Times," Nov. 14, 1865.

FREEMAN'S CHLORODYNE is employed largely and with much benefit in Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Coughs, and many other diseases, producing always a feeling of ease and comfort to the patient seldom obtained with other remedies.

It is offered to the Public as the best preparation of the kind, and at a price which allows the poorest person to provide himself with a reliable and well-proven safeguard, which rapidly relieves pain, unpleasant sensations, many indispositions and is especially necessary, owing to the climatic changes at this Season.

Each Bottle contains full directions for use and a sheet of Medical Testimonials of its wonderful properties.

It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband their small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as largo interests as in any part of the world.

THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA receives Deposits of from Five Patacones per Annum up to any amount in Weekly, Monthly, or Yearly Instalments.

THE CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY.

The foreign public of Buenos Ayres was somewhat astonished yesterday by a rumour to the effect that the National Government had refused to extend the time fixed for the completion of the railroad to Cordoba, but a statement having appeared in the Nacional, the official paper, to the effect, leaves no room for doubt in the matter.

The precise motive for this line of conduct on the part of the Government is difficult to discover, as we are unwilling to suppose that any Minister would resort to this plan for the purpose of embarrassing the company or shirking the guarantee,—and yet the public will possibly view the matter in no other light.

The history of this grand trunk line has been one of violated Government promises since the turning of the first sod; the land grants, upon the very faith of which the road was to be built, are to this very hour incomplete; years of the most tedious procrastination on the part of the Government have rolled by, local and municipal governments, private owners, and public officials, have put so many difficulties in the way that for a time it was thought impossible to deliver to the contractor the land granted in the concession.—These unlooked for delays by the Government in the performance of a stipulation, which we may say was the fundamental capital of the company, threw back the concessionaire and the works considerably, and but for the very high reputation of Mr Wheelwright in London and of his partners, Messrs Brassey Wythes, there can be no doubt whatever the railway would never have been built at all.

Furthermore, it was expressly stipulated that the navvies should be exempt from military service, yet nevertheless the peones were on repeated occasions swept from the road, sometimes by the Government, sometimes by the revolutionary party, and last of all the breaking out of the Paraguayan war caused such a crash throughout the interior that no workmen were left, and Mr Wheelwright had to send to Europe for navvies.

Again, as if all these were not sufficient to exculpate Mr Wheelwright from responsibility for the delay of the works, we have the Montevidean Government removing the only lighthouse at the month of the Plate, and half the materials for the Cordoba Railway sent to the bottom of the briny deep off Lobos Island; every cargo lost took months and months to replace, owing to the great distance, and the fact that the English workshops were at the time flooded with orders for all parts.

In justice to Mr Wheelwright and the contractors of this road we must say that if the line is not open to Cordoba, the Argentine Government is more to blame than any one else,—and the Vice President of the Republic, who is now called upon to consider this matter, should weigh well the consequences of a step which would irretrievably damage the credit of the country abroad.

What will the people in England say when they hear that the Argentine Government has refused to extend for even two months the time for completing the works? Why simply, that Mr Wheelwright should have known better the people with whom he was dealing, and that now he has been caught by a set of sharpers.

We can imagine nothing more prejudical to this country than such an imputation—better even a revolution or another Paraguayan war than an official act which all will regard as a claptrap for repudiation.

If there is any man who merits the very highest consideration and Government protection it is Mr Wheelwright; even while the Government people here in this city are playing him this trick, he is at his own private expense feasting Mr President Sarmiento and suite at Frayle Muerto; his liberality towards every charitable institution in the country entitles him to be termed the Peabody of the Plate,—and yet this is the man who is now to be turned from the Government House when he asks for a month longer to complete his road. It is really impossible to suppose that the Argentine Government would act in such a manner.

The Government, and the Government alone, is to blame for the delay in the completion of the road, and if the Minister attempts to avail of his own wrong, and shirk the responsibility, the public will know well how to judge of the matter, and future railway contractors will doubtless profit by the precedent.

THE PRESIDENT'S JOURNEY.

Visit to the English Settlements of Frayle Muerto.

Rosario, 24th January.

When President Sarmiento conceived the idea of visiting the colonies of the Provinces of Cordoba and Santa Fé, he knew that the measure was a wise one, but I doubt whether he himself, with all his sagacity and foresight, fully anticipated all the beneficial effects that were likely to follow from it, both in the interests of the colonists themselves and of the country in general. The result, however, of his first experiment in visiting the Frayle Muerto colony has exceeded the most sanguine expectations of all interested in it, and not only produced a moral effect that can scarcely be overrated; but has already borne one palpable fruit by obtaining for the agricultural interests of the River Plate a great boon in the abolition of the duties on imported agricultural machinery of any kind or sort whatever.

By the simple fact of having gone a five hours' journey in a comfortable railway car along the best constructed railway in South America, and a couple of hours dusty, but not uninteresting travelling in a diligence across the pampa, that was but yesterday a silent wilderness, and where to-day the whistle of the steam-plough is the best indication that civilization is fast asserting its influence over its boundless limits, President Sarmiento has done more to popularize his administration and convince the world of the earnestness of his intentions than by all the decrees that he could issue in a month. The information he has gathered during the few hours of personal intercourse with these adventurous pioneers of civilization in the Cordoba pampas will lead to far better results than all the petitions or addresses that can be sent to him to Buenos Ayres. The colonists, I am happy to say, estimated at its true worth the value of his presence among them, and duly testified it as far as lay in their power.

It had been decided, in order to avoid travelling in the heat of the day, to start by an express train at 4 a.m. on Saturday, (the day before yesterday), although Mr. Sarmiento was under the obligation of attending a ball given in his honor on Friday night.

The ball which took place in the same building where the banquet had been held the previous evening was a brilliant affair, and fully equal to the one given two nights before in the house of Señor Peñaloza. It was attended by over six hundred people, including, besides the distinguished guests whose visit to Rosario is creating so much commotion and enthusiasm, all the elite of the local society. Too much credit cannot be given to the gentlemen of the committee, among whom were conspicuous Messrs, E. Paz, Arteaga, and Weldon, for the admirable arrangements of the whole thing.

About half past three the President and those who were to accompany him to Frayle Muerto left the gay scene to prepare themselves for the journey. Having hurried to my lodgings to change, I reached the Station punctually at four, and found that most of the party were already assembled, The night was dark, and it was not until daylight came that I distinguished who formed our party. There was besides the President, Dr. Gorostiaga, Mr. Kirk, Count Amelot, Captain Vigres of the Decidée, Governor Cabal, Consul Hutchinson, Mr. Wheelwright, Mr. Krell, Generals Arredondo and Conesa, Mr. Cooper, Mr. Woods, Drs. Salva and P. Rosas, Mr. José Caminos, Colonel's Romero and Gomez, Mr. Armstrong, and Mr. Rufino.

The train consisted, besides the engine which carried in front the English and Argentine flags, of a second class car and a first class saloon on each side of which was hoisted the Argentine flag. Thanks to Mr. Woods' several of the party, myself included, were accommodated with Crimean 'catres,' so that we were able to make up for the sleep of which we had been robbed the previous night. We started at 4.30. and reached Frayle Muerto Station at 9.30 having gone 122½ miles in five hours, which considering that we had to stop at all the intermediate stations was certainly very good travelling.

The Frayle Muerto Station was gaily decked with flags, and on the platform President Sarmiento was met by Governor Peña of Cordova, the President and some members of the Municipality of Cordova, besides the Municipality of Frayle Muerto, and a large number of English estancieros.

The large refreshment saloon was handsomely fitted up; a table laid for 60 covers occupied the middle part. On the end wall the portrait of Sarmiento was hung surrounded with flags and flowers, and beneath it that of Mr. Wheelwright, on one of the side walls was the portrait of Queen Victoria, and opposite to it that of Washington, both ornamented with festoons of flowers and with the English and American flags joined to the Argentine.

THE BREAKFAST.

About 11 o'clock the party sat down to a most 'recherché' breakfast. President Sarmiento sat at the head of the table supported on his right by Mr. Kirk, and on the left by Count Amelot. Consul Hutchinson sat on Mr. Kirk's right, and Dr. Gorostiaga on Count Amelot's left. Fronting the President sat Mr. Wheelwright, supported right and left by Governors Peña and Cabal.

The arrangements of the breakfast were all in first rate style and reflect the greatest credit upon Mr. Luis Audebrand, the contractor of the Frayle Muerto Station 'confiteria,' he who had been entrusted by Mr. Wheelwright with the management of the whole thing.

The bill of fare, which was unconsciously long, was headed by the following inscription, "Banquete para 60 personas, dado por el Señor Don Guillermo Wheelright al Exmo Sor. Presidente de la Republica." When scarcely half of it was gone through Mr. Sarmiento rose and said—

Gentlemen: I rise to address you overcome by the unexpected grandeur of the scene that is before us. This gathering in the heart of the silent Pampa of which I have been the historiographer when it maintained al its primitive character, both for the object that brings us together, the vehicle that has conveyed us, the distinguished persons that accompany me, and the toilers who receive me, assumes the character of a great event. It is no ordinary occurrence that in a spot like this we shall see gathered together the Head of the Republic, the representatives of the three great nations that have most contributed to the progress of mankind, the Governors of the neighbouring provinces, the clergymen of the surrounding parishes, the engineers who have given railways to two Republics, Deputies to Congress, Generals and an assembled host, in which one can trace already the characteristic features of the English people, the pioneers of civilization in the Pampa. [Cheers.] In the name of human progress which has stamped itself on Frayle Muerto Station, I come to take possession of the Pampa, to hand it over from to-day more and more to the railway that crosses it, to the powerful steam-ploughs that have begun to till it, to agriculture, to civilization, and to industry. [Loud applause] From the moment that I conceived the idea of this journey to the Litoral provinces, notwithstanding the splendour of the Santa Fé colonies, the agricultural experiments of Mr. Melrose had for me a paramount interest, and to study their progress, and learn the difficulties that beset them, I devote, as you see, the first moments I can dispose of after the warm manifestation of sympathy I have received from the people of Rosario [Cheers]. I have this moment received from Cordova the announcement that the people has elected Deputies who sympathise with the policy of my government. [Cheers.] One of them is an old resident of this district, where notwithstanding its poverty he has lived for many years past. Well known over the whole Republic for his services, he is still more so here for the support he has afforded to the bold English youths who in sight of the savage hordes of Indians ploughed up the first furrow in the Pampa. The settlers call him father, and this is the man that goes to Congress. [Loud cheers.] He will not be called Deputy for Cordova, but Deputy for the English Colonies, Deputy of Agriculture. I tender to Señor Don Cleto Campillo, in the name of the country thanks for his services to the colonists, and for having constituted himself into the representative of Argentine hospitality. [Immense applause.] I have also good information of the modest curate of Frayle Muerto, whose virtuous merits as a clergyman are enhanced by his enlightened activity as a member of the municipal board, opening up streets, giving to the town a church, municipal institution, school, &c. [Cheers.] From this day 50$ per month are allotted to an English class in the town of Frayle Muerto. If civilization speaks all languages, machinery applied to agriculture, the plough, the drilling, reaping and thrashing machines speak only English, and it behoves the future Argentines to understand their language. [Great applause.]

Gentlemen, I must betray a weakness. This name of Frayle Muerto grates against me. It is both disagreeable and unbecoming. St. Geromino has been unable to bury him. [Laughter.] The dead friar is still there. Let us give to this station a more pleasing name; let us call it Bell Station, in memory of the courageous youth, here present, who was the first to take up his residence in this solitary prairie, and drive to a distance its savage dweller. [Great cheering]. As head of the Government I can do but little directly in favor of the farmers, whom I wish and hope to see increase and multiply until every inch of ground that surrounds us is covered by their homesteads and their fields. I believe some good has been done them by removing to a distance the frontier. Up to last year the part of the Republic inhabited by Christians was but a narrow isthmus. At the Guardia de la Esquina the lance of the South Indian frequently crossed that of the Northern. To-day Santa Fé has no frontier to the South, Buenos Ayres and Cordova protect it, as Cordova itself has ceased to be a frontier province to the North. [Hear, hear]. I am accompanied by a gallant field officer of the army in Paraguay, who, when he had barely landed in Buenos Ayres, has resumed his sword to take command of all the Northern frontier. I recommend to the Governments of the neighbouring Provinces, and to the citizens and residents in them, this brave soldier. I drink, gentlemen, to the prosperity of the colonies of Fraile . . . . of Bell's Station—always the dead friar. His Excellency resumed his seat amidst the most enthusiastic cheering, which was taken up again and again.

Mr. Wheelwright, then rose to propose the health of his distinguished guest President Sarmiento. He expressed his delight at seeing him there, and dwelt upon the great advantages his visit would bring to the prosperous colony of Frayle Muerto. He alluded to the difficulties that had been surmounted in the execution of the Central Argentine Railway, and said that although it promised soon to be completed to Cordoba, he prophesied that his dream of seeing it carried to the Pacific would ere long be realised. [Loud cheers].

Mr. Melrose, who asked leave to speak in English, returned thanks for the President's toast, and dwelt upon the difference that existed between Frayle Muerto now and when he knew it six years ago. He concluded by proposing the health of Sr. Don Cleto Campillo.

Consul Hutchinson then rose and said—Before drinking this toast, Mr. President and gentlemen, I desire to add a few words in seconding it, and ask you to allow me, like Mr. Melrose, to speak in my mother tongue. I passed through Frayle Muerto exactly seven years ago on my return from the Salado Expedition, and at a time when there was not a single Englishman resident in the district from the Tercero river, here to the Carcaraña, where the railway bridge crosses it, a length of more than a hundred miles. I find in Frayle Muerto district to-day there are 209 Englishmen, that in the last year on the farms of only 15 of these more than 70,000 bushels of wheat were produced at the average of 28 bushels per acre. Since the first Englishman came here in 1864, Don Cleto Campillo has been always their firm friend in the many difficulties they have had to encounter, and I therefore feel very great pleasure in thanking him in the name of Her Majesty's government for his many kindnesses to Englishmen. [Cheers.] The toast was drunk with applause.

Mr. Campillo in a most eloquent speech returned thanks, and proposed the health of the Cabinet of Señor Sarmiento.

Dr. Gorostiaga replied, and passed some well deserved praise upon the construction of the Central railway, which he said fully and entirely satisfied the Government, praising the contractors for their faithful fulfilment of their contract.

Governors Peña and Cabal, Mr. Kirk and others spoke, the lattter making a most telling and eloquent epeech.

The party then broke up and adjourned to Mr. Campillo's house, in the town of Frayle Muerto.

ANOTHER PARAGUAYAN AUCTION.

CHURCH VESSELS AND ORNAMENTS.

AFFLICTING SPECTACLE.

The wreck of Paraguay is complete! the hull is gone down and the few paltry articles saved by the wreckers were yesterday sold at auction by Don Mariano Billinghurst.

Disguise it as we may, there is immense sympathy for unfortunate Paraguay. General Mitre, Dr. Elizalde, and Dr. Gomez may write as much as they think; the triple alliance may be justified by the soundest reasoning, the most unanswerable arguments; still the current of the heart cannot be altered, and, high above policy and politics, public sympathy reigns supreme Every one feels for Paraguay; if there was anything wanting to increase that sympathy it certainly was the auction which we are called on to report. Everything that the unfornate people held most sacred was pitched into the auctioneer's mart for sale. The altars before which the people for 300 years knelt, the crucifix emblem of salvation, the Madonnas before which the young and old poured out the tenderest and best feelings of the human heart, all were torn from their high places and sent down to Buenos Ayres for sale. As we entered Mr. Billinghurst's ware-rooms yesterday we felt indeed that another Julian had come on earth; the carefully worded advertisement of Mr. Billinghurst concealed from us the sacrilege of the sacrifice; and when we had fully inspected all the lots offered for sale, we satisfied ourselves of the fact, that the whole consignment amounted to nothing else save the spoils and scrapings from the sacked churches of a ruined and extinct people! Even the very auctioneer himself betrayed his feelings of regret at the rude sacrifice. There was none of that jocund felicity of expression so characteristic of Don Mariano. He went through the "going, going, gone" part of the business with that stiff formality which spoke volumes. The bidders seemed for the most part callous to the scene, and, if we except Don Andres Lamas and his son, we doubt if there was a buyer at the place save for lucre.

Lot No. 1—Consisting of a collection of silver plating for altars, a broken 'remonstrance' for the Host, remnants of silver chalices was put up; after the auctioneer had carefully explained the conditions of the sale, that all was sold by weight, so much per oz., and everything pertaining to the same entering as silver. The first bid was $16 m|c per oz, after a few minutes the lot was knocked down to Don Torquato Alvear at $25 per oz.

Lot No. 2—Consisting of a silver heart with rare devices, a crown, two cannons and a cross, other pieces of silver, angels that had lost their wings. a large silver cross with emeralds; knocked down to Don Andres Lamas at $26 per oz.

Lot No. 3—The broken disjointed remains of 22 silver candlesticks. $24 per oz. Torquato Alvear buyer.

Lot No. 4—An antique silver snuffers and tray, broken silver dishes, some Guarani filigree work, and pieces of the sun's rays. $20 per oz. T. Alvear.

Lot No. 5—Silver dishes, holy water sprinklers broken in two, silver stands for candles, a small antique silver bell. $26 per oz. J. Cruz Varela.

Lot No. 6—Silver pedestals for candlesticks, cups, chalices, cruets. $25 per oz. T. Alvear.

Lot No. 7—Silver gilt cups, silver pegs, silver dishes for altar service, silver handles of sprinklers, broken candlesticks, &c. 24½. Alvear.

Lot No. 8—Silver chalice, lamp, chalice stands and broken silver candlesticks. $24 per oz. Mr. Barclay, purchaser.

Lot No. 9—Large silver bowls, broken silver gilt crosses, silver cups. $24½. Alvear.

Lot No. 10—Silver crowns, silver suns, silver saints and angels, some antique filigree work. $41 per oz. J. Cruz Varela.

Lot 11. Silver candlestands, solid silver handles, cups, and silver hinges, $25 per oz., Alvear.

Lot 12. Silver holy water fonts, silver plates, handles for candlesticks, $24 per oz., Mr Barclay.

Lot 13. Immense collection of silver ornaments of the most extraordinary shape and fashion, 24½ m|c, Alvear.

Lot 14. One entire collection of broken candlesticks, smashed up crosses, angels, and saints, $24 m|c., Barclay.

Lot 15. A collection of battered, smashed up silver chalices, gilt silver cups, and a really beautiful crucifix, 24½, T. Alvear.

Lot 17. Silver crosses of the most antique shape and make, Guarani inscriptions, figures, &c., 24½; Alvear.

Lot 18. Four silver dishes, very massive, peculiar shape, $26½ m|c., Rivero.

Lot 19. Large silver bell, solid dish, and some silver in bar, $34 m|c., J. C. Varela.

Lot 20. A Madonna, beautifully worked in silver, the top carried away by a musket ball, and marked with fire, the figure praying to Heaven, and beautifully cut; Lamas, jun., $28.

21. Extraordinary silver ornaments, with figures of saints, painted on card, and inlaid, supposed to be over 300 years old, $25⅜, Alvear.

Lot 22. 22 chalice cups, gilt silver cross, dishes, &c., 25⅜; Alvear.

Lot 23. Grand silver tiara, for procession; solid silver figures of Saint Philip and Saint James, in silver and painted stands, dishes, and plates of the most peculiar form, $26; Alvear.

Lot 24. Large silver gilt ornaments, beautifully worked, evidently used for grand processions, angels in silver, set with stones, $29 per oz., Mr Hart.

Lot 25. Collection of grand chalices, for the most part smashed to pieces, $27, Fortunato Rivero.

Lot 26. Several curious silver gilt figures, stands for candlesticks, massive silver, $28, Mr Hart.

Lot 27. Great collection of altar ornaments, some said to be over 200 years old, the silver nailed on to the wood; some parties objected to selling these by the oz., but a 'platero' offered $10, and bidding went on to 21½—knocked down to Mr Barclay.

Lot 28. Silver coffin plates, heavy and solid, $24 m|c. Alvear.

Lot 29. Silver cross stands, filled inside with wood and bricks, $6½, Mr Leuz.

30. Antique altar ornaments, the Ten Commandments in Guarani, on wood, with silver inlaid, $6 per oz., Don Andres Lamas.

Lot 31. Silver incense holders beautifully worked, solid silver, $25½, Alvear.

Lot. 32. Silver cross broken at the feet, silver bowl with bullet holes through and through. Incense holders broken to pieces $25½, T. Alvear.

Lot. 33. One large collection of small altar candlesticks about 50 in number in rather good repair $23½, T. Alvear.

Lot. 34. Grand collection of high solid candlesticks evidently for the high altars, not much smashed up $11½, Mr. Leutz.

This concluded the sale; the auctioneer retired without embellishing the sale with even a few remarks; the buyers went inside to weigh their thirty pieces of silver, and we left the crowd satisfied that history repeats itself.

ENSENADA.

We subjoin the opinions of some experienced men as to the suitability of Ensenada for being made the port of Buenos Ayres. Doubtless Mr. Wheelwright is only waiting the completion of the railway to Cordoba, to take in hand actively the Ensenada enterprise for which he holds the concession some 5 or 6 years back.

Capt. Milne of the barque Pariah has had occasion to spend 7 days at Ensenada, during which time he examined the capacities and circumstances of the proposed port. He says that it is somewhat like Pernambuco, but possessing much greater advantages: the inner harbor of Ensenada could hold 4 times as many vessels and has double the depth of water that Pernambuco has. The outer roads of Pernambuco are very dangerous, whereas the outer port of Ensenada could accommodate 200 vessels with all safety and comfort, being protected from all dangerous points. The inner harbor or creek, he says, may be compared to a dock, where ships could lay alongside each other. Close to the Battery there is a point admirably suited for a Patent slip.

The captain of the R. M. S. La Plata, accompanied by the pilot, 3rd officer and purser, paid a visit on the 12th instant to Mr. Geo. Wilks at Ensenada, chiefly with the object of exploring and examining the bay. The Captain came up in his lifeboat close to the houses and observed how easily passengers and cargo could be landed. He had the satisfaction of seing the Brit. barque Ketwm sail into the inner harbor, take in a cargo of mules in 11 hours, and put out to sea next day under sail, without tug-boat or assistance, and drawing 13½ feet water. He said that he did not comprehend how the Government lost sight of such a place as Ensenada for the great port of the Republic.

MOLE-HEAD SALVAGE.

The following extraordinary claim for salvage, by the Port Captain of Buenos Ayres, has been brought to us by a victimised ship captain. We know nothing of the case beyond the facts at foot, which have been guaranteed to us by the captain. The boat in question, which is British property, is worth £15, and certainly, from the captain's statements, it is difficult to justify the arbitrary se questration by the Port Captain of Buenos Ayres:—

On Thursday, about four o'clock, the carpenter of the ship pledged the boat for $50 to a man named Charley, who baled out the boat and took her into the creek. At seven o'clock that evening the man Charley went to the captain to say the boat had been pawned. The captain went next day to the Consul, who referred him to the Captain of the Port. On arriving at the Capitania, the Port Captain sent a man with the captain to see Charley and bring him up. When Charley came up the official said that the money must be paid. The case was put off until the next day, The Port-Captain on Friday, stated that if the amount was not paid he would claim one third the value of the boat; on Saturday the captain went to the Capitania to pay the money, the Port Captain said that the boat was in his hands now and adjourned the case until another day; and thus the matter stands. The Port Captain claims the third of the value of the boat.

COLONISTS FOR CERRO LARGO.

The Siglo contains an interesting letter on the advantages offered to colonists by the district of Artigas, in Cerro Largo, close to the Brazilian frontier of Rio Grande.

"Artigas is a town of 400 inhabitants: one part is built on a ridge, the other on the bank of the River Yaguaron, and the latter is often flooded in August and September: The principal dealers do a good trade in exporting hides and wool across the Brazilian frontier, and receiving in return import goods for consumption. In front is the Brazilian town of Yaguaron, with its 5,000 inhabitants, there being a ferry every ten minutes between the opposite towns at a charge of 4 cents. The river is over 200 yards across, and about 7 or 8 feet deep; steamers ply several times a week to Rio Grande, carrying mails for and from Europe. Brigs and small craft carry on a constant trade between Artigas, Yaguaron, and Rio Grande, so that although we are 120 leagues from Montevideo which is a journey of 4 days in a coach, and costs 11 silver dollars, we are in immediate contact with the outer world through Rio Grande.

"Until recently there were five saladeros here; at present there are two in pretty fair work, One belongs to D. Geromino Paseyro and Jean Ypar, the latter a Frenchman: Paseyro has another saladero on the Yaguaron side, and he keeps twenty Bascos in constant work. He also wants two Spanish families to grow grain. The chief merchant here is D. Joaquin Medeiros, who has a saladero, brick-kiln, bakery, soap-factory, drapery shop. &c.; he wants twelve or fifteen Bascos for his establishments, and some women to make cheese and butter: he keeps two smacks. The usual wages here are 16 to 20 hard dollars a month with board and lodging.

"Mr. Edward Jackson, who has lived here over twenty years, and is surrounded by a fine family, is laying down three wheat-farms which he will give to three English, German or American families on halves, besides finding them in all necessaries the first year.

"For settlers willing to begin farming there is a number of chacra lots around the town, each consisting of 80 acres [40 cuadras] and the cost of taking out the documents is only $20, which entitles the occupier after 4 years' cultivation of the land to become owner in fee, without any other expense. The public lands so marked out for chacras cover an area of 2 sq. leagues [13,000], of which 65 lots [5,200 acres] have already been ceded, although hardly 20 of them are under cultivation.

"The soil and climate are favorable, and oranges, bananas, rice, coffee, wheat, maize and vegetables grow easily. Unfortunately the people know nothing of agriculture, nor farming implements; the little wheat we sow gives fifteen-fold and yet we have not enough for the immediate demand. The emigrant would find land, wood and water free of cost, and the place only wants a little enterprise and labor.

"The free navigation of Lake Merim and the Yaguaron river would tend immensely to open up this part of the country: the treaty of 1851 was a great blunder in this respect, and General Flores, just before his death, took some steps for a new arrangement with Brazil, to which it is thought Dom Pedro was willing to assent.

"Artigas has state-schools under Sor. Viglio and his wife, which are attended by 100 children. Sor. Paseyro is very liberal in support of the church and all public institutions. The district covers an area of 30 sq. leagues, with some 3,000 inhabitants, who are mostly Brazilians or natives of mixed blood, for Orientals and Brazilians are closely related by intermarriage."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Post Master General of the Republic Sr. Posadas, has addressed a communication to a leading colleague, in which, while denying any participation in passing the act that put a stop to the regular running of the Provincial diligences, he flatly contradicts the accounts published in the metropolitan and provincial press respecting the confusion and delay in the delivery of the mails caused by that absurd measure. Sr. Posadas refers to the dates of letters and journals received from the upper provinces in proof of his assertion that, "the mails were never carried with more rapidity and regularity than at present." The Minister may probably in the routine, discharge of his duty have managed to provide somehow for the despatch of the mails; but what the press has chiefly complained of is the shortsighted policy of Congress in putting the provincial public and the Post-office in a fix through their puerile legislation. The Post Master General promises the complete organization of the new courier and post-chaise service by the 1st of March.

The Central Argentine Railway Company have again been obliged to appeal to Government for an extension of the time allowed by contract for the completion of the works. The Government has refused the application of the Company, though the additional time asked is only a month. We think the Government would have acted more prudently in complying with the request of the Resident Director, the extension of time asked being so short.

We have received from our special correspondent a graphic account of the doings at Frayle Muerto, on the occasion of the President's visit. H.E. is enchanted at the reception he met with from our countrymen. An idea may be formed of the enthusiasm with which Mr. Sarmiento has been received in Santa Fé, by the following estimate of the expenses incurred by the various public bodies to do him fitting honour. Ball at Peñaloza's quinta £400; Merchant's banquet £700; 'Carne con Cuero' to National Guards £250; General Reception £300; Municipality expenses £200; Te Deum £50 Banquet on board Ceres £100; Frayle Muerto banquet £400; Banquet on board Italian gunboat £250; Spanish banquet £500; making a total of £3,150 in a week. At the Spanish banquet an astounding ovation was given to our colleague Hector Varela the Cicero of the Plate. The enthusiasm awakened by Dn. Hector's eloquence, seems to increase on each successive occasion.

A locomotive made a trial trip on the Catalinas branch of the Western Railway on Tuesday; the line will be completed in a very short time.

We regret to say that the rejoicings incidental to the President's visit to Santa Fé have been marred by the occurrence of a frightful tragedy at Ballesteros, where an Englishman named Bold and his servant boy Tait have been barbarously murdered. This assassination has roused the utmost indignation throughout the province, and H.E. President Sarmiento has offered 5,000 patacons for the apprehension of the murderer. It is more than probable that he will be captured, and should such prove the case, we trust the Santa Fé Tribunals and Executive will show an example to the other provinces by condemning and executing the criminal on his being found guilty. Of what avail to offer a large reward for his apprehension, if, on being convicted, justice be not done? The tide of blood is rising with awful rapidity in every quarter, and must be stemmed at any cost.

Messrs. Roque Perez, Casares, and Lorea have been appointad as a committee to confer with the Government respecting the making of a new burial ground at Chacarita. This locality is the very best that could be chosen for the purpose.

The population of Montevideo has increased in eight years 117 per cent., and now stands at 126,000; that of the Republic increased from 221,000 in 1860 to 387,421 in 1868, and is now probably close on 400,000. Of the male population 37 per cent. are natives and 63 per cent. foreigners; the adult females present a contrary proportion, 60 per cent. being natives and 40 per cent. foreigners. The ratio of population to territory is 55 inhabitants to each square league.

General Emilio Mitre has been appointed Inspector General of Arms, vice Gen. Rivas, who has resigned that post, and goes to the frontiers to look after King Calfucurá, who seems determined to resort to the "last argument" in defence of his territories and those of his brother caciques.

The Government School of Telegraphy now counts 27 pupils; although this department has been but a short time in existence the 'alumni' are said to have made great progress in the mysteries of the telegraph, and will soon give place to a fresh relay of young men intended for the service.

The performing dogs and monkeys will make their debut before our public next week at the Franco-Argentine Theatre. Avis aux enfants.

The Government has contracted for the erection of a pier at San Nicolas de los Arroyos; the want of such accommodation has for a long time interfered with the progress of this little place.

Sr. Balcarce Argentine Minister at Paris has forwarded to Sr. Bedoya 2000 yards of linen as an offering towards relieving the nakedness and distress of the suffering Paraguayans. The latter gentleman acknowledges receipt of the generous gift in a graceful letter to Don M. J. Guerrico who undertook its transmission.

Mr. Stewart who has been for some time in treaty with Government for the construction of a highroad between Cobos and Tucuman, has received 20,000 pats. on account of the expenses of this useful work.

The new race course at San Vicente will be inaugurated on the 14th of next month—St. Valentine's day.

The great auction of Paraguayan church plate came off yesterday at Don Mariano Billinghurst's mart, in another column will be found full particulars of this interesting sale.

Mr. James Murdoch has established a tannery in Santiago del Estero, which according to accounts from that place turns out work in a most superior manner. The leather of all kinds produced at this establishment is said to be superior to any imported from France and England. It has long been a reproach to this country that we have been obliged to import tanned leather, while we have the raw material in such abundance. We wish Mr. Murdoch every success in his spirited enterprize.

The Rosario people seem to think that the President's visit gives their city another chance of becoming the Capital of the Republic. Every allowance must be made for the momentary excitement existing amongst them, but we cannot see that any of the objections set forth when the measure was vetoed last session have been removed, or are likely to be so. The evening official organ of the National Government thinks it likely that the question will be discussed again next session. Such is probable, but the result must be the same.

We regret to announce the death of Dr. Don José A. de Zavalia, Criminal Judge of the "Departemento del Centro;" the lamented gentleman expired on Tuesday in the town of Mercedes.

Three hundred and twenty ounces of gold and gold dust have been forwarded to Montevideo from the Cunapiru mines.

The wheat crops this year in the neighbourhood of Bragado, 25 de Mayo, Areco and Saladillo, have proved magnificent and surpassed the expectations of the sowers both in quality and quantity.

Nothing new as usual from Montevideo. Speculation in gold continues tolerably active; the price is now 53¼ prem. The Government is about to make a vigorous effort to improve the port which is nearly as bad as our own through sunken wrecks and accumulation of sand

The newest style of wearing their tresses in vogue amongst the 'lionnes' of the Paris 'salons' is appropriately called 'a la Public Meeting,' the hair being left 'barley stack' fashion, in complete disorder, and confined in a wisp by a coronet of pearls.

The Chilians are about to erect a magnificent equestrian statue in their capital to the memory of our late distinguished countryman General O'Higgins.

There are 110 American bishops at present in Rome; 40 of them are from South America.

Another meeting of the Municipal Electoral College, has been called by Government for to-morrow Friday, there not being a quorum present on the last occasion.

Sr. Olivera Chairman of the Cordova Exhibition Commission, leaves for that city on Tuesday next to inspect the progress of the building.

General Castro, late Commander of the Oriental Army in Paraguay will be entertained to-night by his numerous friends in Montevideo at a grand public banquet.

The men who escaped on Monday night from the Policia were the same who a week ago robbed Mrs. de Salas's house in Calle Corrientes. Every thief can count on similar impunity as long as the present happy-go-lucky system lasts.

Dn. E. Machain has received from Vice President Alsina, his exequatur as Paraguayan Consul in this city.

The Buenos Ayres formerly City of Providence, conveying the Entre Riano National Guards from Rosario (Paraguay) to Asuncion, took fire, and in order to save the troops, the vessel was run on shore; only two men were lost.

During Tuesday night the temperature was very low indeed; the thermometer having gone down to 54° Fahrenheit, which compared with last Sunday when it was 95° gives a difference of 41 degrees.

It is worthy of remark that the quantity of grain coming to town from the South to the Plaza Constitucion is greater than ever before known; it is clear that agriculture is taking root in all parts of the Republic.

The engineers of the Southern railway are at present engaged at Azul in surveying the ground for the extension of the line to that point; the site for the terminus has already been determined on.

The Provincial Government has ordered the Justices of the Peace in the rural districts to collect and forward a return of the number of 'graserias' and saladeros in their respective partidos. Returns have already been forwarded from some districts, but the list is not yet complete. When published it cannot fail to prove interesting to both sheepfarmers and dealers in wool and tallow. The number of these establishments has greatly increased during the last two years.

A Brazilian friend requests us to notice the arrival of Dr. Nuñez da Costa, who is reputed to have much skill in the treatment of ocular affections and other ailments. He is of Brazilian family, and has been educated in Europe.

ON 'CHANGE.

January 26, 1870.

Ounces	400
Sovereigns	122½
Patacons	26
National Bonds	61

There was nothing done in bonds to-day for cash, For Monday 45,000 sold at 60¾, and 5000 for the end of February at 61⅛. Total sales 50,000. The bond market rules firm but there is very little doing, and the brokers complain greatly of the slack times.

Exchange to-day ruled active, although yesterday afternoon the rate fell off somewhat, but to-day bills were offering freely at 60½ at which rate there was a good deal passed.

Money continues tight, and several call loans on bonds have been called in by some of the banks. Although the wool business in the market has greatly fallen off still money is in as great demand as ever.

The Calle Cuyo tramway works are pushing ahead, and the line will be opened in the first week in February, starting from corner of Calle San Martin and Cuyo, and running out to the Plaza; the cars will start at either end every quarter hour, making 120 trips in the day; the fare will be three dollars m|c., and it is calculated that if there are only four passengers in each trip the road will pay its expenses. The shares were enquired for yesterday at 5 per cent. premium; no sellers.

Some 160 gas shares are offering for sale at 75 premium, and 19 Bolsa shares at 90 ex-dividend. Now that the money market is getting tighter, many of those securities are finding their way to the Bolsa.

Pine.—Cargo ex Pembroke, from New York, sold to-day at 40 pats, on board.

Coal.—Cargo sold to-day at 10 pats.

Respecting the rumoured assassination of Mr. Badaracco, of the Boca, we are most happy to say that it is without the slightest authenticity. The report was given to us by a highly respected German money broker on the Bolsa. Mr. Badaracco has a wide connection, and the report, we regret to say, has caused much anxiety.

The terrible news of the burning of Mr. Galvan's steamer City of Buenos Ayres, formerly the City of Providence, reached town yesterday. It appears she took fire near the Ibicuy, through the carelessness of some of the troops cooking on deck. In less than half an hour she was in a blaze, and the captain had to beach her in order to save the lives on board. The steamer was at the time engaged bringing down the Entre-Riano troops from Paraguay, and had over 300 soldiers and 160 women on board; all, luckily, are saved, with the exception of two soldiers who jumped into the river. The engineers were picked up by a passing steamer, and landed here yesterday. With much justice they complain of the conduct of the captain who picked them up, and who charged them double fare to Buenos Ayres. Such rapacity hardly needs comment.

The auction of sacred relics from the Paraguayan churches at Mr. Billinghurst's to-day realized some 400,000 paper dollars. Mr. Alvear was the principal purchaser.

The Araucania arrived at Montevideo to-day early, and it was said on 'Change would leave this afternoon.

There was much said on 'Change respecting the rather inexplicable conduct of the Government in refusing to extend the time allowed to the contractors of the Central Argentine Railway for the completion of the works, and everyone expressed a wish that the Government would reconsider its decision in the matter, as it would prove most injurious to the shareholders, and damning to the credit of the country abroad. The works are proceeding as fast as circumstances will allow, and the road will probably be finished to Cordova in sixty days.

Within the last few days there have been heavy arrivals of wheat in the market, and prices have fallen off to 130 por fanega at the Boca; wheat is arriving very fast also at the South market. Few of the brokers were aware that so much wheat was sown in the South as the arrivals now indicate. At the North market wheat also is coming in, and there can be little doubt that prices have yet to give way somewhat. We hear of one or two influential parties buying up wheat to place in deposit, but the supply appears to be too large for much room for such a business. Alfalfa is also falling; to-day some sales were effected at $350 per ton; a few months ago the price was nearly three times this, but the demand for the army has immensely fallen off of late, and consequently it has in a measure ceased.

The wool market (South) was rather brisk to-day and a good attendance of buyers. About fifteen thousand arrobes sold; the greater part sold by Bernechea and Arias at prices ranging from 40 to 48; some of these wools a few weeks ago would have readily fetched 55. A small, fine lot from Ranchos realized 55, but only Magdalena wools obtain these prices now. The bulk of the wools coming in from the South are of inferior condition and quality.

The sales in the Plaza Once were as follows:—

LADIES OF DELICATE CONSTITUTION cannot use the coarse cathartics without danger. Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, uniting the properties of a gentle laxative and a stomachic, appear to be especially adapted to the wants of the sex. In cases of hysteria, hypochoudria, and other mental bodily disturbances arising from functional irregularities, the Pills have uniformly proved useful, and hence have a high reputation among female invalids.

APEAL
THE BRITISH HOSPITAL,
MONTEVIDEO.

In the year 1857 it was found to be necessary to provide special Hospital accommodation in this city for our fellow-countrymen. A Building, affording a sufficient number of Wards to meet our wants at that time was accordingly rented, and furnished with all the usual appliances. But in the year 1865, from the vast increase which had taken place in the number of vessels frequenting the Port, this Building became so overcrowded, that, on the appearance of an infectious disease, it was felt that the lives of the patients were seriously endangered, while many applications for admission could not be entertained by the Committee. It was then resolved to put forth a special effort to procure larger and more suitable premises, and for this purpose an Appeal for Funds was made to the British residents, and was by them most liberally met.

A site was then purchased and a Building erected on it, furnishing Beds for Fifty Patients, besides Rooms for a Superintendent and Matron, a Surgery, and all the usual Offices; while it was so constructed that, should a necessity arise at a future day, additional wards can be added at a trifling expense. We have thus an Hospital, in all respects, admirably adapted to meet our necessities, and incurring expenses for general management never exceeding our annual income.

The total cost of site and building has been thirty-six thousand dollars, of which sum twenty-one thousand have been paid, leaving a deficit of fifteen thousand dollars. This sum has been lent to the Committee at interest by several British residents; but, with a community so small, and continuing to support their other Institutions, and that during a period of severe commercial and monetary distress, it is hopeless to expect to pay it off without assistance from other quarters.

The Committee propose to hold a Bazaar in September, 1870, and they make a general appeal for contributions of money, and of useful and ornamental articles, suitable for sale, believing that when it is seen that the British residents in this City have not been backward to help themselves, but that 'they have been willing to their power, yea, and beyond their power;' and the Comimttee trust this Appeal will be met by every men with a generous and liberal response.

Private patients are received in separate rooms, at the rate of three dollars per day, including all expenses.

Rooms with Two Beds.

Private patients are charged only one and a-half dollars per day.

A Reading Library on the Premises, at the disposal of inmates.

Contributions should be forwarded before the 30th April, 1870, to the addresses noted at foot, and will be thankfully acknowledged by the Committee.

ENGLISH SEMINARY.
564—CALLE VICTORIA—564.

The undersigned begs leave to inform the Parents and Guardians of the youth under his care, that owing to the very rapid increase in the number of his Pupils, and wishing to provide further accommodation, that he has leased the above very spacious premises, where, by the same assiduous attention to the moral, physical, and mental culture of his Pupils, he hopes to secure a continuation of the Public patronage that he has for so many years enjoyed.

The premises, situated in the most elevated part of the city—in front of Plaza Lorea—are very spacious, having four patios, lofty and well ventilated dormitories, extensive class rooms, and other accommodation, unequalled by any other public or private Seminary in the city.

A respectable and carefully-selected staff of resident and non-resident Teachers and Professors, second the efforts of the undersigned in his endeavors to render the English Seminary an intellectual "Home" for the sons of those parent who do not reside in the city.

The course of instruction comprises all the branches of a liberal education, together with the University Course, several of the young gentlemen having carried off the highest University Classifications awarded during the recent examinations.

The Seminary Re-opened on Friday, the 7th instant.

ENGLISH CROSS-BRED RAMS.

Messrs. GIBSON, BROTHERS,
Of "Los Ingleses," Port and Partido of Ajo,
Beg to call the attention of Sheepfarmers to their Cross-bred Rams now on Sale there.
The advantages of this Breed are to increase the length of the staple and value of the wool, the size of the carcase, and the hardness of the sheep, including greater freedom from foot rot, to which the Rambouillet breed is so subject.
The Messrs. Gibson have been crossing their Flocks for the last twelve years with some of the best English long-woolled sheep, having imported during this time Romney Marsh (& Kentish Sheep), Cotswold, Lincoln, Leicester, and Cheviot Cross, pure Cheviot and Shropshire Down Rams.
From these they now offer for Sale Cross Rams from superior Mestiza and Rambouillet Cross Ewes.
In addition to the advantages of the Breed above enumerated, they would draw attention to the fattening properties of the 'cross' an object of great importance at present, when, owing to the low price of all wool, it is necessary to breed for fat as well as wool. As a proof of the value of the breed in producing fat, they have known instances of capones yielding upwards of 50 lbs. of raw grease and tallow.
From the long time that Messrs. Gibson have been engaged in crossing their flocks with English-bred Rams, it will be evident that nowhere can Sheep Farmers expect to find Cross-bred Rams, with so much English blood, as those they now offer for sale.
For further information apply to Mr. John Smith, 23 Calle Solis, where fleeces of the Cross Wool may be seen. 222,1m,jan25

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Co.
101--Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current we now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes alerady mentioned, Sundays an holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

STATUTES OF AN ASSOCIATION UNDER THE NAME OF SEAMENS' UNION IN BUENOS AYRES.

ARTICLES.

1. The Seamens' Union is an unlimited Association which cannot expire nor dissolve.

2. Any sailor may become a member of the same, by paying $10 m|c (ten pesos m|c), at his shipping or getting his discharge, no matter where he boards.

3. Any Boarding Master may become a member of same by paying $600 (five hundred pesos m|c), in the hands of one of the Trustees of the Association, Treasurers, or Presidents, both of which titles will be represented by the respective Consuls of the different nations.

4. All Captains may ship their men at the Society's Office without any commission; but are bound to pay the men they ship their respective Bounty in Cash, and into the hands of the respective Treasurer (the sailor or captain's Consul.)

6. Only those sailors will be admitted as members of the Seamens' Union, who produce their discharge in due order, or in want of the same, prove, by other documents, to have fulfilled their duty.

6. In case a member of the Seamens' Union, shipped at the Society's Office, should leave his ship before her departure, or within a month from the date of his having been hsipped, the Society being responsible for its members, will order its Treasurer to return the Bounty received, and either expel such member from the Association, or fine him for double the amount of Bounty received.

CONDITIONS FOR SHIPPING.

11. The different cash-boxes of the Seamens' Union will be opened every six months, in presence of the President, Vice-President, and two Trustees, and its contents shall be distributed as follows:—

One-third to the German Poor House.
One-third to all the Hospitals.
One-third being left as a Reserved Fund.

In case the Reserved Fund should exceed the amount of $5,000 m|c (five thousand pesos m|c), the Trustees may dispose of same for the members of the Association present at that time in Buenos Ayres.

TRUSTEES OF THE SOCIETY.

12. The Committee of the Society is formed, besides the Foreign Consuls, who represent President and Treasurer of their respective nations, by six members, viz.:—

A Vice-President and Representative, and two Trustees and Representatives as Honorary Members, without any remuneration for their services, besides a Clerk for the Central Office, whose salary will be fixed by the Commission, and whose duty it is so be at the Office from Ten a.m. until Three p.m., to receive and book in the respective books all orders of captains as well as of men, which books he is obligod to show to any Boarding Master who, as a member, has the right to inspect them, in order to have him present at the Central Office, his respective men, who are wanted.

ELECTION OF TRUSTEES.

13. The Trustees of the Seamens' Union are elected every second year, by the absolute majority of votes. Every Trustee has two votes in an election. Should a Trustee withdraw before his time, the member of the Society who, in the preceding election received the next majority of votes, will retain his place until the next election takes place.

GENERAL MEETING OF THE ASSOCIATION.

14. A General Meeting will be called for twice a-year, say the first Sunday of the month of January, and the first Sunday of the month of July, and held at the Rooms the Commission will designate for this purpose. The presence of at least Ten Members is required for any deliberation or votation.

15. HONORARY MEMBERS.—Any person who forwards the interest of the Seamens' Union Association with sincerity, or may merit such distinction by presents made, or any other laudable act for or on behalf of the Association will be declared and named Honorary Members of same.

16. The Society will establish a Shipping Office near the Beach, or in the neighbourhood of the Central Office of the Seamens' Union Association, which, under the immediate inspection of the Society's Committee, will provide captains with the necessary crew.

17. Invalid seamen will be maintained by the Society without any remuneration, Sick seamen will be sent to their respective hospitals from the Central Office, with the permission for admission granted by the respective Consuls.

18. These Statutes will be printed for the term of one month, in the English and German Newspapers, as well as in the 'Tribuna,' and will be produced every six months, together with an extract of the Estate of the Association.

19. Every member of the Seamens' Union obliges himself to lend all his zeal, aid, and influence for maintaining, forwarding, improving, and giving publicity to its Statutes.

20. The association will be constituted formally on the 15th of January 1870, the Central Office will be opened on the March 15 1870, up to which date the provisional committee endeavours to make these Statutes known amongst seamen.

21. The preceiding articles, signed by the provisional committee, will be handed over to all foreign consols in the river. The list of members which are already laid up, will be published in all respectable newspapers every Saturday.

22. No member of the association can be shipped or discharged, without notice having been given to his consul, or the Central Office of the Seamens' Union.

23. On and after the 15th January, 1870, the Committee will hand over to each Consulate a Cash-box and a Register, containing the signatures of all the members and their respective quotas.

24 These Statutes will be printed and put up in proper frames, at all Foreign Consulates, Captains' Hotels, and Boarding-houses, Ship-chandlers and Boardingmasters.

STATUTES OF THE
CERRITO COLONISATION AND AGRICULTURAL JOINT-STOCK COMPANY.

Art. 1. The object in view is to cultivate and colonise the Lands belonging to Mr. J. J. Lieste, in the Cerrito, Department of Paraná, Province of Entre Rios, Argentine Republic.

Art. 2. The Capital is $125,000 (£25,000 sterling) in 125 Shares of One Thousand hard dollars each, numbered 1 to 125, of which the proprietor, Mr. Lieste, represents 80, as the value of the Lands to be cultivated and apportioned to Colonists.

Art. 3. Each of the 125 Shares will gain an annual interest of 15 per cent., payable quarterly on the 1st May, 1st August, 1st November, and 1st February, of each year.

Art. 4. The Proprietor, Mr. Liest, has hypothecated his lands to guarantee the payment and amortisation of the 125 Shares created, and this Mortgage was signed at Buenos Ayres on the —— day of——, 1870, before the Escribano, D. Victoriano Cabral, and duly registered in the Book of Mortgages of Entre Rios a copy of same being deposited, with the Title-deeds, in the Argentine Bank, Buenos Ayres.

Art. 5. The amortisation of the Shares will be made out of the proceeds of Farm Lots sold, the Titles for same being signed by Mr. Lieste and the Manager of the Branch Bank at Paraná, the latter receiving the amount, and the Lots so sold being then free of all responsibility or lien whatever. The Manager of the Branch Bank shall remit all such sums to the Argentine Bank at Buenos Ayres, to constitute the Fund for Amortisation. As soon as $3,000 are collected, a Lottery shall be made of the Shares 1 to 110, and three drawn for Amortisation, and so on. The remaining 15 Shares (Nos. 111 to 125) are to be kept as a guarantee, of which hereafter.

Art. 6. Each of the Shares Amortised, as in Art. 5, shall also receive a premium of 8 per cent. per annum,

Art. 7. The Company will last for three years, from February 1st, 1870.

Art 8. At the end of three years the Company shall be wound up, the remaining Shares Amortized, and the surplus divided 'pro rato,' among the Shareholders. Mr. Lieste guarantees this surplus to reach 12½ per cent. on each Share; and as security deposits his 15 Shares (111 to 125) in the Argentine Bank, Buenos Ayres.

Art. 9. Mr. John J. M Lieste is responsible Director and Manager of the Company; he is to receive no salary, but draw one-third of the nett proceeds in the final liquidation.

Art. 10. The Managing Director shall keep his Books in due form, so as to show his balances at the meetings, as laid down in Articles 11 and 12. These Books shall always be at the disposal of the Shareholders to examine whenever they think fit.

Art 11. In the first two months of each year the Manager shall call a Meeting of Shareholders, to report to them the progress and condition of the Company's affairs; and two months before the expiration of the term of three years, he shall call a General Meeting to present a general statement of the approximate condition of the Company, and devise steps either for finally winding it up as in Art. 8, or prolonging the Company for a new term, if this seems desirable.

Art. 12. In the caser above contemplated it shall be a 'quorum,' if one-eighth of the individual shareholders attend, and they must then resolve the business in hand, but if one-eighth be not present, a second summons shall be issued, and the business then resolved by whatever number may attend.
